

Midsummer Picnic 21st June 2009

29 people turned out for our first Midsummer Picnic held under (next to) the Umbrella Tree on Naphill Common. We met at the end of Forge Road at 3pm just as a few spots of rain fell. But as soon as we started walking to the Umbrella Tree the rain stopped. Once at the Umbrella Tree the sun came out (see pictures below). It was a mixed group from very young to ---- old, plus a few well behaved dogs.

Some of those who attended the Midsummer Picnic standing in front of the Umbrella Tree
(Photo by Peter Davis)

(See early pictures of the Umbrella Tree below)

Talking and eating. (Photo by Peter Davis)

Early pictures of two sisters near and under the Umbrella Tree

